VALERIE CAPRONI, United States District Judge:

WHEREAS the parties are tentatively scheduled to appear before the Court for a bench trial in May 2021;

WHEREAS as of March 17, 2021, the parties' motions in limine are fully briefed; and

WHEREAS on March 22, 2021, the parties jointly notified the Court that its decision on one of Defendant's motions in limine may help facilitate a settlement in advance of trial, Dkt.

142

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that oral argument on the parties' motions in limine is scheduled for April 9, 2021, at 2:30 p.m. Oral argument will be conducted via Zoom video conference. Chambers will email the parties with further information on how to access the video conference and will post a subsequent order providing a public dial-in.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the parties must be prepared to discuss why their arguments, including those invoking judicial estoppel, are appropriate for disposition on a motion in limine. See, e.g., Audio Technica U.S., Inc. v. United States, 963 F.3d 569, 575 (6th Cir. 2020) ("[I]t was improper for the district court to consider judicial estoppel within the context of a motion in limine. Rather than addressing the admissibility of certain pieces or types of evidence, [plaintiff's] motion asked the court to bar the jury from hearing one side's argument, essentially granting them judgment as a matter of law on that point. Such non-evidentiary legal issues must be decided in the context of a motion for summary judgment").

SO ORDERED.
